SINA ROLF
BENZ

1964

Rolf Benz SINA, Arabic for “beauty”, stands for the modern reprise of the Rolf Benz icon Addiform from 1964. Six decades later, flexibility, functionality and a timeless design that creates space also form the basis of this iconic anniversary sofa that was inspired by the design classic that is as inviting as it is celebrated.

Rolf Benz SINA guarantees a tailor-made living experience. It can be used equally as a focal point for unconventional ways of working, relaxed meetings, or as an inspiring cosy retreat for wonderful moments. In short, this sofa embodies everything that Rolf Benz stands for.

Timeless beauty. Impressive facets.

The modular sofa system, in which all elements can stand alone or as a combination, easily becomes a contemporary focal point in the home without taking up too much space. Quite the contrary, Rolf Benz SINA presents itself as a reserved living landscape whose timeless design ensures it remains a captivating exceptional feature.

The unusual elegance of this design and its elevated craftsmanship are highlighted not least by its elaborate felled and decorative seams. An optional, horizontal Cacharel pleat along the backrest cushions exemplifies ultimate craftsmanship and is an eye-catching design that is both reserved and appealing at the same time. The soft seat cushions of Rolf Benz SINA rest on a frame that is available in leather or fabric with softly curved back and side sections.

Seat and backrest cushion covers in contrasting materials and colours create a modern mix of materials and the wealth of creative design possibilities here is seemingly endless.
