Unopiu dresses the outdoor with excellence and craftsmanship. The brand offers a rich and colourful textile proposal, which varies in patterns, nuances and textures, leaving great freedom of choice in combinations and countless possibilities for customisation of its upholstery. The cushions can be upholstered at will with bouclé fabrics, plain, narrow, wide, vertical and horizontal stripes, all in various coordinating shades. Unopiu's fabrics combine excellent characteristics of resistance to atmospheric agents with a high aesthetic value, giving a feeling of elegance, hospitality and pleasant tactility. The chosen materials are certified and performing, and all specific for the outdoor, among the wide range there are fabrics in water-repellent acrylic, waterproof and recycled acrylics of new generation.
